Call for Applications

This Call for Applications is issued in the framework of the RLS Geneva Office, which wishes to continue its work in the field of international organizing by supporting the Organizing 4 Power online training project. For this, RLS Geneva is looking for an experience labour organiser to support the existing O4P training team and coordination team as a Lead Trainer. The winning candidate will play a critical role in the organisation, implementation and follow up on the upcoming Trainer Academy.

Summary of the tasks:

- Leading an O4P Trainer Academy scheduled for 4-8 December (3 hours each day), in which approximately 40-50 organizers will acquire the skills necessary to participate as trainers in future O4P programs.
- The winning submission will be responsible for all aspects of said Trainer Academy, including but not limited to:
  - Overseeing the selection of participant applicants;
  - Working with selected participants to prepare for the training;
  - Preparing all training materials, including by selecting passages from previous O4P trainings to present at the Academy;
  - Working with back-end team to ensure all materials and structures are in place in advance;
  - Conducting the training itself;
  - Doing one week concerted follow up with participants plus O4P staff coming out of the training.

About us: The Rosa-Luxemburg-Stiftung is an internationally operating non-profit organisation for civic education affiliated with Germany’s Left Party. It is a discussion forum for progressive political alternatives and a centre for critical thinking and research both in Germany and throughout the world. The Geneva office serves as the liaison office to the UN institutions in Geneva, but as well works thematically towards the issues of global social rights, socio-ecological transformation and transnational organizing.

The Rosa-Luxemburg-Stiftung expects the following qualifications:

- A minimum 5-7 years of experience as an organizer, including a lead organizer on more than one campaign.
- Experience leading train-the-trainer style programs.
- Ability to work on an existing schedule with a multi-layered team, some of whom are in part-time or volunteer capacities.
- Existing knowledge of Jane McAlevey’s work and organizing methodology.
- Participation in Organizing for Power training programs is preferable but not required.

Timeline: The contract starts on 30/OCTOBER/2023 and the service should be completed by 15/DECEMBER/2023 with an expected maximum of 29 working days in that period.

Award criteria: 50 per cent price, and 50 per cent experience.
